

May 21 Resource Fair Open to Families Affected by the Tornadoes

Release Date: 5? 16, 2022

MAYFIELD, Ky. – The U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) is bringing together federal and state agencies as well as legal aid services under one roof to offer their services and resources to families recovering from the Dec. 10-11 tornadoes. The Disaster Recovery Resource Fair will be held on May 21 from 10 a.m. CT to 4 p.m. CT at the high school gym in Mayfield.

The fair is a collaborative effort of local, state and federal resources to help answer survivors' questions and provide resources as they rebuild and repair their homes and lives after the devastating tornadoes.

Subject matter experts will be on hand to discuss programs and resources that are available to survivors, including information on:

- Housing
- Homeowners insurance
- Foreclosure prevention
- Title issues/successions
- Legal services
- Disaster mitigation
- Various types of loans
- And more!

Sign language interpreters and Spanish language interpreters will be available at the event to assist disaster survivors. Survivors who have questions about the event can email the HUD Kentucky Field Office at ky_webmanager@hud.gov or call (502) 582-5251.

For information on Kentucky's recovery from the tornadoes, visit fema.gov/disaster/4630. Follow FEMA on Twitter at FEMA Region 4 \(@femaregion4\) / Twitter and at facebook.com/fema.

